B + B INTERIOR SPACE BY PAIGE BOLLER

Paige Boller, Principal of design consulting firm B + B Interior Space, is passionate for creating luxury interiors that successfully combine timeless elegance with an eclectic twist and a modern touch.

With every project Boller incorporates sophisticated and creative ways to reflect the individual lifestyle and unique personality of her clients. Therefore, each client is viewed as a part of her team. Boller works with her team sharing ideas, opinions, and resources to create solutions for the interior space that is ideal for each of her discerning clients.

Not afraid to use bold color, yet comfortable working with a soothing neutral palette, Boller's attention to each and every detail always mirrors her clients personal style. Bound by her A-list client confidentiality, the limited amount of work B + B Interior Space is allowed to publicly reveal, still marks Boller as a noteworthy designer to follow.

Boller's background is comprised of more than 20 years' experience in design and decoration. She established B + B Interior Space, which offers a variety of decorating solutions from residential, commercial and healthcare to aircraft and maritime interiors. Based in New York City, B + B Interior Space works on both local and international projects.

The core of all projects is the the melding of client needs and the integrity of design not overdone. Follow her @bbinteriorspace.
